

match day experiences

Enhance your next match day experience by sitting back and enjoying the hospitality facilities at St James' Park. Available for your own casual use, or perhaps as a treat for something more special like a birthday or anniversary celebration, we are able to offer a variety of additional benefits before, during and after the match of your choice to make the whole experience that much more memorable.

Why not consider treating someone to a day out with a difference, or you may want to entertain those important business clients - whatever you decide, we are flexible enough to cater for 2 people or a party of up to 50.

We are pleased to present a selection of hospitality packages and opportunities to get much more involved on match day:
